Excerpt from Local Rule 83.1 Attorneys: Admission to Practice and Disciplinary Proceedings.

a) Bar of Court. The Bar of this Court consists of those persons previously admitted to (and not removed from) the Bar of this Court and of those persons who hereafter are admitted under this rule.

(1) Any attorney who is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Alabama may be admitted to the Bar of this Court upon the submission of an application, payment of the prescribed admission fee, and

(A) the order of a district judge of this Court (on oral or written motion by a member of the Bar of this Court or on the Court's own motion), and the administering of the prescribed oath before any judge (or other designee) of this Court; or

(B) the filing of a certificate of good standing from the Clerk of the United States District Court located within the district in which the applicant resides or regularly practices law.

(b) Appearance Pro Hac Vice. Any attorney who is not a member of the Bar of this Court but who is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the district in which such person resides or regularly practices law, may, upon request, be admitted pro hac vice by an order of any district judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge of this Court. A certificate of good standing from the district in which the attorney is admitted must be attached to his/her request for admission pro hac vice. Any such attorney who appears as counsel by filing any pleading or paper in any case pending in this Court shall, contemporaneously with the filing of such papers, apply for admission pro hac vice as set out herein.
